

About Us

Connecting San Francisco's workforce since 1971

◆ 501(c)(3) Public Charity · Free services for all job seekers

---

Mission Hiring Hall (MHH) is a nonprofit organization dedicated to meeting the immediate and long-term employment needs of San Francisco's low- and moderate-income residents, while supporting the workforce development needs of local employers.

Founded in 1971 as part of the Mission Coalition of Organizations — a grassroots group formed to address the social and economic conditions of San Francisco's Mission district — MHH has spent over five decades at the center of workforce equity in the Bay Area.

Our Services

All services are provided free of charge to job seekers.

- Employment counseling, training, and job placement
- Vocational training in construction trades, construction project administration, security services, and hospitality
- Homeless employment programs for individuals experiencing housing instability
- Employer recruitment services and compliance support under San Francisco's First Source Hiring Program

Our Mission

"To meet the immediate and long-term employment needs of San Francisco's low-income residents and the workforce development needs of local employers."

Contact Us

169 11th St. @ Natoma St.

San Francisco, CA 94103

(415) 626-1919

info@missionhiringhall.org

missionhiringhall.org